David Anderson

Member of Parliament for Cypress Hills - Grasslands

Dear Grain Producer,

The Canadian Wheat Board director elections are underway and you have a critical part to play in electing a director that best represents you. A change in leadership around the Board of Directors' table would mark a new era of opportunity in Western Canada. Your vote can make that happen.

Our Conservative Government believes that you deserve the freedom every other citizen of this country takes for granted – the freedom to market and sell your product as you choose.

I am very pleased to have a strong proponent for marketing choice running right here in District 4. Sam Magnus of Luseland, SK has forty years of farming experience and understands the issues that matter to you. Sam also has a proven record in mediation and was seen as instrumental in brokering the merger between the Canadian Alliance and the Progressive Conservative parties. I am confident that Sam's experience in bringing divergent views together will well serve prairie grain farmers if he is elected as a CWB director.

To ensure a win for marketing choice, you must rank both candidates that support marketing freedom as your number 1 and number 2 choices.

Sam Magnus	1 or 2
Walter Surtjens	1 or 2

Together, we can bring marketing choice to Western Canada. Time is running out, vote for Sam and Walter today and mail or fax it back to Myers Norris Penny.

Sincerely,

David Anderson MP
Cypress Hills-Grasslands
